

Top Drawer Cabinetrys Confidentiality Agreement

This agreement is between Top Drawer Cabinetry, LLC (“Company”) and _____ (“Employee”).

Effective on Employee’s first day of employment.

1. Confidential Information “Confidential Information” means any non-public information about the Company, including but not limited to:

Financials, pricing, margins, vendor terms, customer lists and contact info, Inventory data, product information, Internal processes, reports, Login credentials, system access, and any other information a reasonable person would consider private to the business.

Employee agrees to: Use Confidential Information only for work for the Company. Not share Confidential Information with anyone outside the Company without written permission Take reasonable care to keep it secure (don’t leave it lying around, don’t forward to personal email, etc.) These obligations apply while employed and continue after employment ends.

2. Work Product Belongs to the Company Any work Employee creates as part of their job for the Company (“Work Product”) belongs to the Company. This includes things like: Spreadsheets, reports, dashboards, SOPs, checklists, written procedures Forecasts, financial models, or any other materials created using Company time, systems, or information Employee agrees that the Company owns all rights to this Work Product and can use it however the Company chooses, even after Employee leaves. If the Company ever needs Employee’s help to sign a document to confirm the Company owns something Employee created for work, Employee agrees to cooperate (at the Company’s expense).

3. Return of Company Property When employment ends (or at any time if asked), Employee will: Return all Company property (laptop, keys, documents, etc.) Return or delete all Company files and information from personal devices, email, or storage, Not keep copies of Company documents or data.

4. No Change to At-Will Status: Nothing in this document changes the fact that employment with Top Drawer Cabinetry is at-will. Either the Company or Employee can end the employment relationship at any time, with or without cause or notice, subject to applicable law.

Employee Signature:_____